

STACKSTONE

Creativity in patio walls and garden walls is stacked in your favour

StackStone, is a tapered garden stone system that features self-aligning landscape blocks with a structural interlock - even around tight curves. Both sides of the stone are rock-faced to use for free-standing patio walls or garden walls, attractive edging, and window or tree wells.

StackStone ensures a perfect, durable, tight fit every time. Use it for straight walls or curves and you'll be impressed by the attractive appearance from any angle.

These popular landscape blocks are available in four pleasing colours: Chamois Blend, Granite Blend, Red Blend and Mocha Blend.
